Product description

Enhance the aesthetics and performance of your Porsche Macan with the 22" Macan RS Spyder Design Wheel, meticulously crafted for the Porsche Macan Model 95C. This wheel features a striking 9J x 22 size with an offset (ET) of 29, providing a perfect balance between aggressive styling and optimal handling characteristics.

Finished in a sleek satin black, this wheel not only adds a touch of elegance but also contributes to the overall driving dynamics of your vehicle. The RS Spyder Design is renowned for its lightweight construction and strength, which helps in reducing the unsprung mass, thereby improving acceleration, braking, and handling response.

The OEM number for this product is 95C601025ADJE1, ensuring it is a genuine Porsche Original part, designed specifically for compatibility with the Porsche Macan Model 95C. This new, unused, and undamaged wheel is a direct replacement or upgrade, maintaining the high standards of quality and performance that are synonymous with Porsche.

Whether replacing an old wheel or upgrading your vehicle for a more custom look, this 22" Macan RS Spyder Design Wheel is an excellent choice for enhancing both the look and feel of your Porsche Macan.
