Product description

This rear seat backrest, specifically designed for the Porsche 911 model 993, including both Coupe and Targa versions, is an essential component for anyone looking to replace or restore the rear seating area of their vehicle. The part, identified by the OEM number 99352201803K03, is an original Porsche part, ensuring compatibility and performance that matches the exacting standards of the vehicle manufacturer.

Finished in a distinctive Cedar Green, this backrest not only provides functional benefits but also enhances the interior aesthetic of your Porsche 911. It is suitable for the rear seats, often referred to as emergency seats in some models, which makes it a crucial piece for maintaining or restoring the original seating configuration. The condition of this part is listed as used, however, it has been described as being in very good condition and undamaged. This indicates that the part has been well-maintained and preserved, ensuring that it will continue to offer both comfort and support without compromising on quality. As an original Porsche part, it guarantees that the fit and finish are exactly as intended by the manufacturer, providing peace of mind that no modifications or adjustments will be needed during installation. This makes it an ideal choice for Porsche enthusiasts and professionals looking to maintain authenticity in their vehicle restorations or repairs.

In summary, this rear seat backrest is not only a perfect match in terms of color and fit for the Porsche 911 model 993 but also meets the high standards of quality and durability expected from Porsche original parts. Whether you're restoring a classic or ensuring your vehicle remains in peak condition, this part represents a blend of aesthetic appeal and functional integrity.
