Product description

This Porsche 718 Cayman GT4 / Boxster Spyder 982 engine is a high-performance 4.0L motor, delivering a robust 309KW (420PS) of power. Designed specifically for the Porsche 718 models GT4/Spyder under the 982 series, this engine ensures an exhilarating driving experience that is synonymous with the Porsche brand.

The engine carries an OEM number 9A210092302, confirming its authenticity and precision engineering as a genuine Porsche part. It is compatible with both the Porsche 718 Cayman and the Porsche 718 Boxster models from the 982 series, making it a versatile choice for repairs or upgrades.

Conditioned as 'used', this engine is in excellent shape, described as very good and undamaged, ensuring that it maintains the high standards expected from Porsche original parts. This motor not only promises remarkable performance but also reliability and longevity, characteristic of Porsche's engineering excellence.

Ideal for owners looking to replace or upgrade their vehicle's engine with a powerful and reliable option directly from Porsche, this 4.0L engine is an excellent choice that balances performance with durability.
