Product description

This high-quality mudguard for the Porsche 911 model 991.1 GT3RS, made of carbon, is to be fitted on the right side of the vehicle. This original Porsche part, with OEM numbers 9915030329A and 99150303295, features a lightweight and sturdy carbon construction that not only reduces the weight of the vehicle but also improves its aerodynamics and performance.

Although this mudguard is used, it is in very good condition and undamaged. Please note that the colour of the mudguard may differ from the image and that repainting may be necessary to correct any scratches or other minor defects.

This spare part is ideal for owners of a Porsche 911 model 991.1 GT3RS who value original parts and want to keep their vehicle in top condition. Fitting this mudguard not only restores the original appearance, but also helps to maintain the performance and driving dynamics of the vehicle.
