Product description

This high-quality "Sport Classic" carbon bonnet and boot lid for the Porsche 911 model 992 combines functionality with aesthetic elegance. Made from premium carbon fibre, this component is characterised by a significant weight reduction, which not only improves the speed and fuel efficiency of the vehicle, but also makes a positive contribution to aerodynamics. The smooth surface of the bonnet gives the car a luxurious look and enhances its overall appearance.

As a new, unused and undamaged item, this bonnet meets the high quality standards of Porsche original parts. Equipped with OEM numbers 992823033E GRV and 992823033C GRV, it guarantees authenticity and a perfect fit specifically for the Porsche 911 model 992. This makes it the ideal choice for car enthusiasts who want to improve both the performance and appearance of their vehicle.

The carbon fibre bonnet is not only ideal for preparing for car shows, but also an excellent choice for enhancing the everyday driving experience. Its durability and sophisticated design make it an essential upgrade for any Porsche 911 model 992 owner who values performance and style.
