Product description

This rear engine cover, complete with an integrated rear spoiler, is specifically designed for the Porsche 911 model 991.2 GT3 RS MK2. The part number for this OEM product is 99151222795G2XKPL, ensuring a perfect fit and authenticity as it is an original Porsche component.

Crafted from high-quality materials, this engine cover is not only functional but also enhances the aerodynamics and performance of your vehicle. The integrated rear spoiler plays a crucial role in increasing downforce, which improves stability and handling at high speeds, making it an essential component for any performance-focused Porsche owner. This particular item is in a used condition but maintains an excellent state, having been removed from a nearly new vehicle with low mileage. It shows minimal signs of wear or storage marks, which assures that the aesthetic and functional aspects are preserved. Ideal for replacing a damaged cover or upgrading your Porsche 911 991.2 GT3 RS MK2 for better performance and a more aggressive look, this engine cover with spoiler is a genuine Porsche part, guaranteeing compatibility and quality.
