Product description

This rear spoiler/rear wing from the GT3 MK2 series is specially designed for the bonnet of the Porsche 911 model 996.2 (facelift). With the OEM number 99651295900G2X, this original Porsche part guarantees a perfect fit and functionality. This is a used part that is in very good condition, although it may show minor signs of wear or storage. Please note that the colour of the spoiler may differ from the image and that repainting may be necessary to cover any scratches.

This rear spoiler not only improves the aesthetics of your vehicle, but also contributes significantly to its aerodynamics. By optimising the airflow over the rear of the vehicle, the spoiler can increase stability at high speeds, thereby improving driving safety.

The spoiler is designed to be installed directly on the rear bonnet, ensuring seamless integration and high performance efficiency. This part is ideal for drivers who want to fully exploit the sporting potential of their Porsche 911 996.2 GT3.
