Porsche Classic has developed a tool bag for the 912 model in response to numerous enquiries from customers at various Porsche Classic events. Naturally, the classic car experts have also given this bag a unique look by combining leather and corduroy.

This fabric was once used to make the centre section of the seats in the 912. Furthermore, on the outside, in addition to the Porsche crest embossed in the leather, there is the characteristic 912 logo, which used to be found on the vehicle's bonnet.

All the tools were also made specifically for this new bag, in accordance with the original drawings from the original supplier.
