Product description

This multifunction steering wheel is specifically designed for Porsche 911 models under the 991 series, as well as for Porsche Boxster and Cayman models under the 981 and 981C series respectively. Crafted from premium Espresso leather and Mahogany wood, this steering wheel combines luxury with functionality, offering both aesthetic appeal and comfort.

The steering wheel features PDK (Porsche Doppelkupplung) controls, allowing for seamless gear changes and enhanced driving dynamics. Additionally, it is equipped with a heating function, perfect for maintaining comfort during colder weather conditions. The OEM numbers associated with this product are 991347980266H6, 991347980166H6, 991347980106H6, and 991347980046H6, ensuring compatibility with the specified Porsche models. This steering wheel is a genuine Porsche part, guaranteeing that it meets the high standards of quality and performance that are synonymous with the brand.

Condition-wise, the steering wheel is used but in very good condition, with no damage noted. This makes it an excellent choice for Porsche owners looking to replace or upgrade their vehicle's steering wheel without compromising on quality or authenticity. In summary, this Porsche steering wheel is not only a functional component but also an upgrade to the interior aesthetics of your vehicle, reflecting sophistication and a high level of craftsmanship.
